

MLUWC ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING AND DINNER

May 11, 2015

Golf St-Raphaël, Île Bizard, QC

Our keynote speaker for the evening was the well-known columnist, author, radio and television personality Bill Brownstein.

The evening flew by as Bill had everyone laughing at the saga of the City of Montreal's effort, or lack thereof - it took almost 15 years - to find a suitable tribute to Mordecai Richler. The fact that Montreal's world famous Schwartz's Hebrew delicatessen was never actually owned by Jewish people. And, on a more serious note, he spoke about the demise of the newspaper in today's internet world.

Everyone agreed that Bill was a very interesting and witty speaker. Perhaps he can help us get Mayor Denis Coderre to speak at one of our AGMs as he thought, and we concurred, that the mayor would be a most engaging speaker!
